great time and & have treasured that time and my freendship with wendell from then until his death.

My three children often speak of his visit. He took an early morning walk. Jound a parula warbler that had flown into a building, Brought it back to our home and with all of us watching make a study specimen of it. Juit fascinating.

Jam enclosing his littersto me of that time and also some pictures. If more thing surface, twill forward them to you.

Sincerely.
